

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
Northern District of Alabama

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

Case Number 2:10CR237 AMM-GMB (001)

JORAN ANDREAS PETRUS VAN DER SLOOT
Defendant.

REDACTED

JUDGMENT IN A CRIMINAL CASE
(For Offenses Committed On or After November 1, 1987)

The defendant, JORAN ANDREAS PETRUS VAN DER SLOOT, was represented by Kevin L. Butler and James Tobia Gibson.

The defendant pled guilty to counts 1 and 2. Accordingly, the court finds the defendant guilty of the following counts, involving the indicated offenses:

| Title & Section | Nature of Offense | Count Number |
|---------------------|-------------------|--------------|
| 18 U.S.C. § 1951(a) | Extortion | 1 |
| 18 U.S.C. § 1343 | Wire Fraud | 2 |

As pronounced on October 18, 2023, the court sentenced the defendant as provided in pages 2 through 6 of this Judgment. The court imposed the sentence pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984 and the court's authority to impose a sentence outside the advisory guidelines range.

The court ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $200.00, for counts 1 and 2, which shall be due immediately.

The court further ordered that the defendant shall notify the United States Attorney for this district within 30 days of any change of name, residence, or mailing address until all fines, restitution, costs, and special assessments imposed by this Judgment are fully paid.

DONE and ORDERED this 18th day of October, 2023.

ANNA M. MANASCO
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of 36 months as to Counts 1 and 2 to be served separately and concurrently. The Probation Office shall provide the defendant with a copy of the standard conditions and any special conditions of supervised release.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISED RELEASE

While the defendant is on supervised release pursuant to this Judgment:

- 1) You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of the time you were sentenced (if placed on probation) or released from custody (if supervised release is ordered), unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
- 2) After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when to report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
- 3) You must not commit another federal, state, or local crime.
- 4) You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified, for the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person, such as nunchakus or tasers). Revocation of supervision is mandatory for possession of a firearm.
- 5) You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
- 6) You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court. You must contribute to the cost of drug testing unless the probation officer determines you do not have the ability to do so. Based upon a court order entered during the period of supervision for good cause shown or resulting from a positive drug test or evidence of excessive use of alcohol, you shall be placed in the Substance Abuse Intervention Program (SAIP) (or comparable program in another district).
- 7) You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
- 8) You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.
- 9) You must answer truthfully the questions asked by the probation officer.
- 10) You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change. (If you have been convicted of a crime of violence or a drug trafficking offense, the probation office is responsible for complying with the notice provisions of 18 U.S.C. § 4042(b) and (c) if you change your residence.)
- 11) You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
- 12) You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment, you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as the position or the job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- 13) You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
- 14) If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
- 15) You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
- 16) If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk, and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
- 17) You must fully and truthfully disclose financial information as requested by the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision. Financial information may include, but is not limited to, authorization for release of credit information, bank records, income tax returns, documentation of income and expenses, and other financial information regarding personal or business assets, debts, obligations, and/or agreements in which the defendant has a business involvement or financial interest.
- 18) You must support all dependents.

CONTINUATION OF STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISED RELEASE

- 19) You must comply with the probation office's Policies and Procedures Concerning Court-Ordered Financial Obligations to satisfy the balance of any monetary obligation resulting from the sentence imposed in the case. Further, you must notify the probation officer of any change in your economic circumstances that might affect your ability to pay a fine, restitution, or assessment fee. If you become more than 60 days delinquent in payments of financial obligations, you may be: (a) required to attend a financial education or employment preparation program under the administrative supervision of the probation officer; (b) placed on home detention subject to location monitoring for a maximum period of 90 days under the administrative supervision of the probation officer (and you must pay the cost of monitoring unless the probation officer determines you do not have the ability to do so); and/or (c) placed in a community corrections center for up to 180 days under the administrative supervision of the probation officer (and you must pay the cost of subsistence unless the probation officer determines you do not have the ability to do so).

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

While the defendant is on supervised release pursuant to this Judgment:

- 1) You must cooperate in the collection of DNA under the administrative supervision of the probation officer.
- 2) If under any circumstances you are released from or escape Peruvian custody before June 9, 2043, including on parole, probation, or supervised release, you are ordered to make your release known to the United States District Court for the Northern District of Alabama. You will be provided contact information to satisfy this obligation if it becomes necessary.
- 3) Until the sentences imposed today are fully served and satisfied, you must not reenter the United States without the express permission of the Secretary of Homeland Security for the United States. You are advised that because of your guilty plea, you may be forever refused admission to the United States. But you are required not to reenter without the permission as just described until the sentences imposed today are fully served and satisfied. Should you reenter the United States for any reason and for any purpose before that time, you must report to the nearest United States Probation Office within 24 hours of arrival.

RESTITUTION AND FORFEITURE

RESTITUTION

The court, pursuant to the Victim and Witness Restitution Act, finds that the following is a victim of defendant's criminal conduct and has sustained loss in the indicated amounts and orders restitution by the defendant as follows:

| Name & address of payee | Amount |
|---|----------------------|
| B.H. | $25,100.00 |

Payments of restitution without interest are to be made to Clerk, U. S. District Court, for transfer to the payee.

Restitution is due and payable immediately. Payment in full is due by the end of the defendant's term of supervision.

FORFEITURE

The defendant is ordered to forfeit the following property to the United States:

The amount of $25,100 in United States currency as set out in the Binding Plea Agreement filed on October 18, 2023.

A final order of forfeiture will be entered simultaneously with this judgment.
